

Contents

11	Foreword by Jonathan Ruffer
15	Acknowledgements
19	Introduction
	Chapter 1
23	Francisco Bayeu, 'Both Apelles and Aristides in Equal Measure'
	Chapter 2
33	Painted Dogs
33	'One of those little dogs they call lapdogs': the portrait with a dog
37	Fidelitas
47	Woven dogs: Francisco and Ramón Bayeu, Goya and the hunting cartoons
	Chapter 3
55	Study of a Dog from Life : The Dog in the Spanish Gallery
55	A reassessment in the light of the sources and previous studies
60	How and when the dog was painted
70	'The imitation of life': Velázquez in Bayeu
76	To sign or not to sign: the signature on the dog's portrait
82	A work not painted for sale
	Chapter 4
87	The Dog in the Spanish Gallery as a Modello
87	'A very still, peaceful dog sleeping on the ground', 1784
96	Muricians , 1785: Ramón Bayeu uses his brother's modello
101	Saint Peter healing a Lame Man , 1788–90: a dog in the School of Athens
110	Conclusion: A Portrait of a Dog
113	Bibliography
124	Frontispieces